

March 4, 2008
08-12

Media Distribution: NW Oregon
Contact: Denise Berkshire (503) 815-6803

New Guest Presenter Series Begins March 9 at Tillamook Forest Center

A new guest presenter series called "Find Yourself in the Forest" begins March 9 at Tillamook Forest Center, with a 2 p.m. presentation about history and trees. Presenters will offer a variety of engaging topics, highlighting forests (ecology, history, management and sustainability).

This new series debuts Sunday, March 9, and will run through October. The monthly presentations are free and appropriate for adult audiences.

The center is at milepost 22 on Highway 6, about one hour west of Portland.

Upcoming Presentations:

March 9th (Sunday) 2:00 PM

ODF Urban Forest Coordinator Paul Ries
The Trees That Tie Us to Our Historical Roots

April 19th (Saturday) 11:30 AM/1:30 PM

Secretary of State Bill Bradbury
Global Warming and the Impact on Oregon

May 18th (Sunday) 2:00 PM

ODF Protection Unit Forester Malcolm Hiatt
Wildfire and You

For more detailed information visit www.tillamookforestcenter.org.

#